What is Semi-Private Personal Training?

SPPT is our small group personal training. Each new member starts out with a 30 minute consultation to distinguish their starting point. Individualised nutrition coaching to suit each clients food preferences. Individualised training program built around each member & delivered by a coach so that you are never left alone to figure it out and you can become stronger at your pace. Weekly accountability to keep you on track & motivated. Unlimited SPPT access. Monthly consultation & check-in. Free individualised program design. Training is delivered at each members pace and increased in intensity as they increase in fitness. The perfect personal training program delivered at a fraction of the cost with life changing results. Apply for a consultation now - www.functionalfitness.ie/personaltraining2019

What is Group Conditioning?
